

Genesis 6:5-9:17 • Starting Over with Noah

1. (6:5-10) It begins with someone who is spiritually _____ regardless of the _____ around them.
2. (6:11-22) On the one side God devotes to total _____ those on whom His _____ is directed; on the opposite side stand those _____ to Him with whom He makes _____ of safety and redemption as strong as the _____ pronounced on the others.
3. (7:1-5) There is a period of _____ and _____ before the end ultimately comes.
4. (7:10-16) God chooses when to _____ forever.
5. (8:1-9) God's judgment works to _____ the wicked because of their _____ condition yet serves to _____ and _____ the righteous because of their _____ condition.
6. (8:13-19) The righteous never assume anything based on the _____, whether leading up to _____ or after it's subsided.
7. (8:20-22) For every covenant made between man and God, something has to be _____ to complete the deal.
8. (9:1-7) What God stated from the beginning remains the _____ regardless of mankind's failure to _____ or attempts to _____ it.
9. (9:8-17) It ends with someone who is required to be spiritually _____ regardless of the _____ around them.

Genesis 6:5-9:17 • Starting Over with Noah

1. (6:5-10) It begins with someone who is spiritually _____ regardless of the _____ around them.
2. (6:11-22) On the one side God devotes to total _____ those on whom His _____ is directed; on the opposite side stand those _____ to Him with whom He makes _____ of safety and redemption as strong as the _____ pronounced on the others.
3. (7:1-5) There is a period of _____ and _____ before the end ultimately comes.
4. (7:10-16) God chooses when to _____ forever.
5. (8:1-9) God's judgment works to _____ the wicked because of their _____ condition yet serves to _____ and _____ the righteous because of their _____ condition.
6. (8:13-19) The righteous never assume anything based on the _____, whether leading up to _____ or after it's subsided.
7. (8:20-22) For every covenant made between man and God, something has to be _____ to complete the deal.
8. (9:1-7) What God stated from the beginning remains the _____ regardless of mankind's failure to _____ or attempts to _____ it.
9. (9:8-17) It ends with someone who is required to be spiritually _____ regardless of the _____ around them.