

Numbers 25 • Jealous for God

1. (v.1-3) What could not be accomplished by war, sorcery, or divination came about through sexual immorality—an attack on one's personal relationship with God.
2. (v.4-5) A faithful believer already knows what to do in the presence of unfaithfulness.
3. (v.6-9) Sexual immorality which corrupts one personally inevitably leads to corruption of the things of God publicly.
4. (v.10-13) Biblical jealousy is a consuming, single-minded pursuit of God's will and ways.
5. (v.14-18) These kinds of influences come from sources which gain the trust and confidence of believers. First they infiltrate, then they turn on them.
