James 4 • Overcoming the Flesh

1.	(v.1-3) Our first enemy is the	which is fo	cused on our
2.	(v.4-5) Our second enemy is the	which tries to seduce
3.	(v.6-7) Our third enemy is the our	which tries to leverage
Sui	mmary: Ephesians 2:1-3
	• "the course of this	"
	• "the of the pow	ver	"
	• "the lusts of our	"
4.	(110 =0) 1110 01111111111111111		and
	, putting away all
5.	(v.11-12) The antidote to a	first	_ is being more
_	concerned about your own
6.	(v.13-17) The antidote to arrogant as	plans are made	is knowing
Sui	mmary: James follows up establishing	our 3 foremost er	nemies:
	• The (v.1-3)
	• The (v.4-5)
	• The (v.6-7)
V	vith 3 exhortations to repent from the	most damaging e	ffects of these
en	emies
	• (v.8-10)
	•(v.11-12)
	•	_ (v.13-17)
The	ese work to bring so as	to destroy Christ's	intention of a
	,body of be	•
	to His Word both in their	and	I
	. (John 17:22-23; Eph. 4:11	14)

James 4 • Overcoming the Flesh

1.	(v.1-3) Our first enemy is the which is focused on our personal
2.	(v.4-5) Our second enemy is the which tries to seduce away our
3.	(v.6-7) Our third enemy is the which tries to leverage our
Sui	nmary: Ephesians 2:1-3
	• "the course of this"
	• "the of the power"
	• "the lusts of our"
4.	(v.8-10) The antidote to is being and, putting away all
5.	(v.11-12) The antidote to a is being more concerned about your own first.
6.	(v.13-17) The antidote to arrogant is knowing how say, "" as plans are made
Sui	nmary: James follows up establishing our 3 foremost enemies:
	• The (v.1-3)
	• The (v.4-5)
	• The (v.6-7)
и	rith 3 exhortations to repent from the most damaging effects of these
ene	emies
	•(v.8-10)
	•(v.11-12)
	•(v.13-17)
	·
	ese work to bring so as to destroy Christ's intention of a,body of believers who are united in to His Word both in their and
	. (John 17:22-23; Eph. 4:11-14)